Let's talk about dreams

But before we begin,
do you know how was the first dream at Future Wall?

We believe that every dream on our wall has an exciting and collaborative potential. It helps us to encourage and push each other to achieve our ambitions.

A large, irregular purple cloud shape is positioned behind the text, appearing to float in the air.

Usually, the Movilian@s share the same dreams, which stimulates them to get closer and build strong friendships with those who have the similar aspirations.

Do you know the

You may ask yourself
what I do with it...

Help, Engage and Recognize

Leader, you don't need to realize the dream, but you can help Movilian@
to find the best way!

How?

Example 1: If Movilian@ has a dream to buy a new house, apartment or car, you can give same financial advice on (save and invest money).

Example 2: If Movilian@ has a dream to run or to do more exercise, how can you help Movilian@? If you run, invite to go along or do you know someone who can help him/her? Encourage and ask about the training.

Example 3: If Movilian@ has a dream to have an experience abroad and is giving good results, why not think about a PDI with a course abroad?!

9 in 10 middle management employees feel unrecognized by their supervisors

Six Rules to Rewards

- 1- Don't promise reward in advance;
- 2- Keep anticipated rewards small;
- 3- Reward continuously, not just once;
- 4- Reward publicly, not privately;
- 5- Reward behaviors, not only outcomes;
- 6- Reward peers, not just subordinates.

“A dream you dream alone is only a dream.
A dream you dream together is reality.”
